JURY DID NOT AGREE

The Thompson Case Ended Saturday Night.

THEY WERE OUT MANY HOURS

But the Different Sides Eventually Decided That They Could Not Reach An Agreement—The Vote Stood Seven To Five For Conviction Almost All The Time.

The Thompson case came to an end on Saturday a short time before Sunday arrived, and Mayor Gilbert, weary with waiting, sent home the jury.

After the evidence was all in, Attorneys Clark and Brookes began to argue, but they did not talk long. The testimony had told the story, and there were no fine points upon which they could dwell at length. It was a plain matter of whether the saloonist had broken the law in not drawing the curtains, and that was all. The jury knew the case well, and there was nothing to do, but leave it in their hands. They went out soon after 5 o'clock, and the first ballot showed that seven were anxious to see Thompson suffer for breaking the law and five wanted him released because they did not believe he had shattered the ordinance. A few more ballots demonstrated that they were all of the same mind, and they settled themselves for a long rest, when another poll was made, and showed the vote a tie. This was a victory for the defense, and there was another vote which gave Thompson seven of the total, but it did not long rest that way. An effort to reach a conclusion brought from so many the conviction they were right that the next ballot developed the old vote, and there the matter rested. The jurors talked over the case, told stories, and whiled away the time as best they could, but there was no decision. At length they decided there was no verdict in sight, and flung into court so informed the mayor. He did not believe so many intelligent men were unable to reach a conclusion, and sent them back. They took another vote or two, remained in the room a short time, and again reported disagreement. That satisfied even Mayor Gilbert, and as it lacked only a few minutes of midnight he ended the case.

ON THURSDAY.

The Thompson Case Will Come Up Again For Trial.

The Thompson case will be heard again on Thursday morning, following being the jury: William Morris, John McVay, Josiah Hollingshead, Frank Crook, William Brunt, Sr., J. H. Rigby, H. W. Adams, W. Arbuthnot, George Kauffman, Kinsey Martin, James Crawford, James Norris, August Friemark, Frank Sebring, Wat Allison, Dal Anders.

The jury was drawn this afternoon, all the interested parties being present.

BOUGHT PROPERTY.

The Cleveland and Pittsburg Company Made a Purchase.

It is announced today that the Cleveland and Pittsburg company have purchased the Brandy property on the river front and paid a round sum for it. The land extends from the residence of C. Metsch to the Mountford pottery, and is a valuable acquisition. The amount paid is not given out. The purchase was concluded last week when Superintendent Loree and Chief Engineer Newhall were in town, as noted exclusively in the NEWS REVIEW. Negotiations have been on for some time, and if this paper had printed some information it had on Saturday the readers of a local paper would have been spared the affliction of a long drawn out railroad rumor. The object of the company in purchasing the property is unknown. There are several stories as to what will be done with it, but none can be traced to any reliable authority. It is plainly evident that the company have some important move on hand.

ANOTHER FOR THE ROVERS.

They Won From Niles After a Hard Struggle.

The Rover football team are home from Niles with another scalp hanging at their belt, and they had to fight to win it. No goal was made in the first half, although both sides fought hard for the mastery, and the second was almost a repetition of the first. Stagnant up held his reputation by wonderful work in spite of the fact that he was ill, and the others played well. Two minutes before time was called in the second the ball was kicked to the Niles goal. A lively scrimmage followed, and the rovers kicked a goal. It was a fine game, and the home team have just cause to be proud of their victory.

CALLED THEM DOWN.

The Pastor of the First M. E. Church Administers Rebuke.

As Rev. J. M. Huston, D. D., was in the midst of an eloquent address on Sunday night, he paused and said:

"There is someone talking amidst the audience. I have tried to locate the disturbers and have been unable to do so. It is very annoying and I shall not permit it. If I could designate the offenders I would point them out and have the city marshal take charge of them; as I believe he is present."

The pastor was very much in earnest and he will not be trifled with. The interruption occurred when he was speaking of the necessity of reform in the city, and was evidently made by someone opposed to the movement. Reverend Huston stated that it is the first time he has been called upon to reprove anyone for misconduct in his pastorate of three years.

STILL AT IT.

The Rivermen are Working on Congress For Dams.

The following statement has been sent out from Cincinnati regarding the improvement of the river:

The work of this association is being pushed vigorously by its president, Hon. John L. Vance, who has spent a large portion of his time, since the assembling of congress, in Washington. His reports to the home office are exceedingly encouraging. There can be no doubt that this association is headed in the right direction, and if fully and liberally supported by a numerous membership from all classes of business men interested in having the Ohio river preserved as a highway for transportation, it will undoubtedly eventually achieve results of inestimable value and importance.

THERE'S NOTHING IT.

The Canton and East Liverpool Will Not be Down Town.

Some amusement was caused in town on Saturday evening by the statement in a local paper that the Canton and East Liverpool line would probably be built on the river front, and attempts had been made to get the right of way. This is an engineering inconvenience when it is remembered that three miles away the line is out on the hills 250 feet higher than the ground designated, so high that it would be down grade into the camp ground if the road was built that way. It seems pretty generally acknowledged that the Canton and East Liverpool will not be built on the river front through town, but on the hill.

NO DEATHS.

The Bucher Family are Getting Much Better.

The family of Mr. Bucher, residing on the Calcutta road and seriously afflicted with typhoid fever, are recovering, and the attending physician believes there will be no deaths. The boy, who was believed to be dying several times last week, continues to get better, and it is now thought he will recover, while several other members of the family are considered far enough away from danger to be safe. There are yet a number of typhoid fever patients in town, nine more having been added last week.

A FINE PICTURE.

Governor McKinley Has Been Having New Ones Taken.

Col. J. N. Taylor has received from Governor McKinley one of the last pictures that gentleman had made. It shows him standing, dressed in Prince Albert coat and neat tie. In his button hole is the badge of the Loyal Legion, and the features are very plain. At the bottom is the governor's autograph, the whole making up what is perhaps the best representation the gentleman has ever had.

THE SCREEN ORDINANCE AGAIN.

Frank Riggot Charged by Detective Huckle.

The last move of the law and order society was made today when Frank Riggot was charged by Detective Huckle with violating the screen ordinance. The warrant was sworn out this afternoon and will be served at once. According to the charge the ordinance was broken on the evening of Dec. 18.

DRUGGED AND DAZED

Hugh Martin Found by the Police Saturday Night.

UNCONSCIOUS FOR MANY HOURS

The Man Lay All of Yesterday in a Comatose Condition and Did Not Recover His Senses Until This Morning—A Physician Thought he Was Drugged.

Hugh Martin, employed at the Thomas works and living on Fifth street, spent yesterday in jail, lying as though he were dead, the effects of a spree on Saturday night.

The man was found by Officer Whan in an awful condition. He was as near dead drunk as it is possible for any one person to get, and could not talk. The officer called the patrol and Martin was locked up. He was given a bed and left to himself, still making no sign that would leave the casual observer to think that he was anything but a corpse. During the remainder of the night he was in the same condition, and there was no change toward noon. Chief Wyman made several ineffectual attempts to arouse him, and in the afternoon he was as still as though dead. At length the police reached the conclusion that the man was under influence other than drink, and Dr. W. J. Taylor was summoned. He examined Martin and expressed the belief that the man had been drugged, but for what purpose the police could not imagine, although the matter was at once investigated. During last night Martin showed no more signs of consciousness than in the day, and there was uneasiness about city hall until this morning, when he came to his senses. He was dazed, and could tell nothing of himself for a time. His wife was called yesterday, and advised the police to let him alone, with the remark that he would come around all right.

FARMERS IN SESSION.

They are Meeting at the County Seat Today.

SPECIAL TO NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, Jan. 13.—The farmers are meeting at the county seat today in the annual institute, the attendance being larger than ever before seen at a gathering of this kind in the county. President J. B. Crofts made an appropriate address this morning, and John Begg, of Columbus Grove, gave an exhaustive treatise on corn culture. Addresses were also made by Alex McDonald, of St. Clair township, and A. P. Wallace, of Madison township. The interest shown at the meeting is greater than ever before known, and a much larger attendance is promised tomorrow.

FREDERICK BYERS DEAD.

He Was One of the Oldest Residents of Wellsville.

Frederick Byers, one of the oldest residents of Wellsville, died there last night aged 76 years. Paralysis was the cause. He has been a resident of Wellsville for 50 years, and was well known there, having conducted a bakery for a large part of the time. Mrs. Byers, his mother, lives at Atwater, and is 103 years of age. Deceased had six children, one of whom, a cigar maker, lives in this city. The interment will be in the Wellsville cemetery.

THINKS HIM DEAD.

Mrs. Waudby Gives Up Hope of Seeing Her Husband.

Mrs. Waudby, the Broadway woman whose husband went to Pittsburg, drew some money from the bank and then disappeared, has given up hope of ever seeing him again. This happened several months ago, and Mrs. Waudby has been hoping that her husband would return during the holidays, but not a trace of him has been found, and she thinks him dead. It is one of those unexplainable matters which occasionally happen.

STOLE CLOTHING.

A Sneak Thief Got Into the Hotel Grand.

Some sneak thief who evidently knew what he wanted entered the Hotel Grand yesterday afternoon and got away with an overcoat and hat. The coat was the property of Will Stewart and the hat belonged to Henry Harvey. The proprietor says there is a good clue to the thief and proceedings will be entered against him at once, provided the articles are not returned.

LOST HIS COAT

At Least He Thought So Until the Error Was Shown.

A worshiper at a prominent church last evening put on his overcoat, and finding a pair of gloves that did not belong to him in a pocket at once decided he had some other man's coat. He made numerous inquiries, but could not locate his coat until some one told him that he had it on. He denied that it was his and pointed out that it didn't fit him, was shorter than his, and not his coat anyway. At length he found the error, for some one by mistake had put his gloves in the wrong coat, and the indignant one had been wearing his coat all the time.

DIED OF DIPHTHERIA.

Three Cases in the Family of Patrick Craig.

William, the two-year-old son of Patrick Craig, of West End, died yesterday and was buried this morning in the Catholic cemetery. The cause of death was diphtheria, and the antitoxine administered last week could not save the child's life. There are two other cases in the family, and this afternoon it was expected that one of the children could not live. All the afflicted ones are children, and it has been expected that they would get well. The family is sadly afflicted, and Mr. and Mrs. Craig have the sympathy of many friends.

PASSED AWAY.

Two Deaths in the City During Yesterday.

The three-year-old daughter of William J. Sullivan, of Sixth street, died yesterday, pneumonia being the cause. The child was sick but three days. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Eliza Robinson, wife of John Robinson, of Seventh street, died yesterday afternoon after a long illness. She suffered for months from a complication of diseases, and every effort was made to save her life. Mrs. Robinson leaves six children. She will be buried in Riverview on Wednesday afternoon.

A MEAN TRICK.

An Anonymous Letter About the Smallpox.

Last week some individual sent a letter from this city to a Wellsville man telling him that he was wanted here to nurse five smallpox patients, and that he would be met in the Diamond by his employer if he would come at once. The letter was unsigned, and seemed to have been sent out for the purpose of injuring the city. As the story goes the letter came into the hands of Mayor Gilbert, but he would say nothing about it when questioned. It is a pity that the mean man can not be found, and punished.

DIED IN KANSAS.

The Remains of Barney Schmelzenbach to be Brought Here.

Relatives in East End today received word from Newton, Kansas, that Barney Schmelzenbach had died there yesterday because of an attack of fever. A little over a year ago his wife died and left him with four children. He soon lost his health, and went to Kansas in the hope of regaining it. For a time he got along very well, but a few weeks contracted typhoid fever. The body will be shipped today, and interment will be in one of the cemeteries on Wednesday. The children are living in East End.

A FINE PROGRAM

Will Be Carried Out by the McKinley Club Thursday Night.

The members of the McKinley club are nothing if not enterprising, and the manner in which they entertain each other and propose to entertain the public is commendable in the extreme. A splendid program has been prepared for Thursday evening of this week, and all the Republicans in town, whether they be members of the club, some other organization or none at all, are invited. It is the purpose of the club to have a number of excellent addresses, and all the Republicans in town should be there.

THE DIRTY DIAMOND.

It Was Anything but a Pretty Sight Yesterday.

The Diamond was in a woful condition yesterday and presented anything but a pretty sight. There was mud on the pavement in sufficient quantity to make crossing it anything but a pleasant pastime, and waste paper in abundance was scattered along the curb. The place was a miserable sight for a city like this, and many were the unfavorable remarks heard on every hand from people who believe the city should be kept clean, or at least as clean as it is possible to keep it.

Going to Marry.

F. R. Higginson and Ella Hulme, of this city, were granted a marriage license at Lisbon this morning. The only other persons who got the desired permission were Lewis Coy and Nora Battin.

KNOCKED OFF HIS CAR

Motorman Bond Had an Accident Last Night.

HIS CRANIUM STRUCK A POLE

And He Went Down—Commotion Among the Passengers—The Motorman Was Watching the Light As It Flashed From a Burning Motor.

Motorman Bond, residing in East End, is in bed today as a result of an accident which befel him last night.

Bond came here a few weeks ago from Cleveland and was not well acquainted with the line. Last night he was in charge of a car on the road near the Thompson pottery, when the rear motor began to flash, and anxious to know that there was no danger he leaned out from the car. At that instant he was passing a pole, and before he knew it Bond's head had come in contact with it, and he was knocked from the car. The passengers saw the accident, and there was excitement, for the car was dashing along without any one at the lever. It happened that Motorman Mike Fisher was on board, and he quickly took the lever in hand. He brought the car to a standstill, and the injured motorman was gathered up. He was taken to the office of Doctor Marshall where it was found he had not fully recovered his senses. A long wound on his head showed where he had been struck, and numerous bruises were the other results of the accident. After the wound was dressed, Bond was taken to his boarding house. He is better today.

ON TO WASHINGTON.

The Manufacturers Will Leave Town This Evening.

The manufacturing potters who will go to Washington to attend the meeting of the association will leave this evening, and will spend the greater part of the week at the capital. The gentlemen booked for the trip are J. M. McClave, James H. Goodwin, W. L. Smith, Robert Burford, H. A. Kellier, O. C. Vorey, H. M. Harker, B. C. Simms, George Croxall, William Brunt, Noah Frederick and Mr. Mayer. There will be others but they have not yet been listed. Colonel Taylor and Henry Brunt will join them in Pittsburg.

ANOTHER BRIDGE.

It Will be Built Across the River at Bellaire.

The upper Ohio will soon be noted for the number of bridges which span its muddy waters, there now being no less than three in sight, all of them to be finished within two years. The Rochester bridge is well under way, and will be completed by next fall, and the bridge at this point will be ready for travel within a year. The other will be built at Bellaire, a company having been formed for that purpose. It will be a footbridge, be provided with a double track for foot passengers and street cars, and will be one of the best above Cincinnati.

MASHED THE BUGGY.

A Narrow Escape From Going Over the River Bank.

Two young men had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday afternoon. They were driving on Broadway when the horse scared at a reet car, and dashed across the track. It was running toward the bluff overlooking the river when a wheel caught a large lump of coal, overturned the buggy and threw the occupants to the ground. The vehicle was damaged and the young men bruised, but the horse escaped with slight injury. Had the animal continued it course its would have undoubtedly leaped over the bluff.

THE PATROL RECORD.

It Pays to Have the Horry Up Wagon in Town.

The record of the patrol during the first nine months of the fiscal year shows that it pays to have the wagon. In that time there were 86 runs, in which 96 persons were captured. In addition to this number the wagon carried 22 people who had been stricken by illness or had met with accident. A number of runs were made without result, the alarm having been false or the people escaping before it arrived. The arrests were made by different members of the force, every officer having some to his credit.

Surprised.

Miss Gertrude Stoddard was surprised by her friends at her home on May street, Saturday evening. Games and music helped to pass the time until a late hour, when the guests departed all having enjoyed the evening as one of rare pleasure.

JURY DID NOT AGREE

The Thompson Case Ended Saturday Night.

The Thompson case came to an end on Saturday a short time before Sunday arrived, and Mayor Gilbert, weary with waiting, sent home the jury.

After the evidence was all in, Attorneys Clark and Brookes began to argue, but they did not talk long. The testimony had told the story, and there were no fine points upon which they could dwell at length. This was a victory for the defense, and there was another vote which gave Thompson seven of the total, but it did not long rest that way. An effort to reach a conclusion brought from so many the conviction they were right that the next ballot developed the old vote, and there the matter rested. The jurors talked over the case, told stories, and whiled away the time as best they could, but there was no decision. At length they decided there was no verdict in sight, and filing into court so informed the mayor. He did not believe so many intelligent men were unable to reach a conclusion, and sent them back. They took another vote or two, remained in the room a short time, and again reported disagreement. That satisfied even Mayor Gilbert, and as it lacked only a few minutes of midnight he ended the case.

ON THURSDAY.

The Thompson Case Will Come Up Again For Trial.

The Thompson case will be heard again on Thursday morning, following being the jury:

William Morris, John McVay, Josiah Hollingshead, Frank Crook, William Brunt, Sr., J. H. Rigby, H. W. Adams, W. Arbuthnot, George Kauffman, Kinsey Martin, James Crawford, James Norris, August Friemark, Frank Sebring, Wat Allison, Dal Anders.

BOUGHT PROPERTY.

The Cleveland and Pittsburg Company Made a Purchase.

It is announced today that the Cleveland and Pittsburg company have purchased the Brady property on the river front and paid a round sum for it. The land extends from the residence of C. The Rover football team are home from Niles with another scalp hanging at their belt, and they had to fight to win it. No goal was made in the first half, although both sides fought hard for the mastery, and the second was almost a repetition of the first. Stanley upheld his reputation by wonderful work in spite of the fact that he was ill, and the others played well. Two minutes before time was called in the second the ball was kicked to the Niles goal. A lively scrimmage followed, and the rovers kicked a goal. It was a fine game, and the home team have just cause to be proud of their victory.

STOLE CLOTHING.

A Sneak Thief Got Into the Hotel Grand.

Some sneak thief who evidently knew what he wanted entered the Hotel Grand yesterday afternoon and got away with an overcoat and hat. The coat was the property of Will Stewart and the hat belonged to Henry Harvey. The proprietor says there is a good clue to the thief and proceedings will be entered against him at once, provided the articles are not returned.

LOST HIS COAT

At Least He Thought So Until the Error Was Shown.

A worshiper at a prominent church last evening put on his overcoat, and finding a pair of gloves that did not belong to him in a pocket at once decided he had some other man's coat. He made numerous inquiries, but could not locate his coat until some one told him that he had it on. He denied that it was his and pointed out that it didn't fit him, was shorter than his, and not his coat anyway. At length he found the error, for some one by mistake had put his gloves in the wrong coat, and the indignant one had been wearing his coat all the time.

DIED OF DIPHTHERIA.

Three Cases in the Family of Patrick Craig.

William, the two-year-old son of Patrick Craig, of West End, died yesterday and was buried this morning in the Catholic cemetery. The cause of death was diphtheria, and the antitoxine administered last week could not save the child's life. There are two other cases in the family, and this afternoon it was expected that one of the children could not live. All the afflicted ones are children, and it has been expected that they would get well. The family is sadly afflicted, and Mr. and Mrs. Craig have the sympathy of many friends.

PASSED AWAY.

Two Deaths in the City During Yesterday.

The three-year-old daughter of William J. Sullivan, of Sixth street, died yesterday, pneumonia being the cause. The child was sick but three days. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Eliza Robinson, wife of John Robinson, of Seventh street, died yesterday afternoon after a long illness. She suffered for months from a complication of diseases, and every effort was made to save her life. Mrs. Robinson leaves six children. She will be buried in Riverview on Wednesday afternoon.

A MEAN TRICK.

An Anonymous Letter About the Small-Pox.

Last week some individual sent a letter from this city to a Wellsville man telling him that he was wanted here to nurse five smallpox patients, and that he would be met in the Diamond by his employer if he would come at once. The letter was unsigned, and seemed to have been sent out for the purpose of injuring the city. As the story goes the letter came into the hands of Mayor Gilbert, but he would say nothing about it when questioned. It is a pity that the mean man can not be found, and punished.

DIED IN KANSAS.

The Remains of Barney Schmelzenbach to be Brought Here.

Relatives in East End today received word from Newton, Kansas, that Barney Schmelzenbach had died there yesterday because of an attack of fever. A little over a year ago his wife died and left him with four children. He soon lost his health, and went to Kansas in the hope of regaining it. For a time he got along very well, but a few weeks contracted typhoid fever. The body will be shipped today, and interment will be in one of the cemeteries on Wednesday. The children are living in East End.

A FINE PROGRAM

Will Be Carried Out by the McKinley Club Thursday Night.

The members of the McKinley club are nothing if not enterprising, and the manner in which they entertain each other and propose to entertain the public is commendable in the extreme. A splendid program has been prepared for Thursday evening of this week, and all the Republicans in town, whether they be members of the club, some other organization or none at all, are invited. It is the purpose of the club to have a number of excellent addresses, and all the Republicans in town should be there.

THE DIRTY DIAMOND.

It Was Anything but a Pretty Sight Yesterday.

The Diamond was in a woful condition yesterday and presented anything but a pretty sight. There was mud on the pavement in sufficient quantity to make crossing it anything but a pleasant pastime, and waste paper in abundance was scattered along the curb. The place was a miserable sight for a city like this, and many were the unfavorable remarks heard on every hand from people who believe the city should be kept clean, or at least as clean as it is possible to keep it.

Going to Marry.

F. R. Higginson and Ella Hulme, of this city, were granted a marriage license at Lisbon this morning. The only other persons who got the desired permission were Lewis Coy and Nura Battin.

KNOCKED OFF HIS CAR

Motorman Bond Had an Accident Last Night.

HIS CRANIUM STRUCK A POLE

And He Went Down—Commotion Among the Passengers—The Motorman Was Watching the Light As It Flashed From a Burning Motor.

Motorman Bond, residing in East End, is in bed today as a result of an accident which befel him last night.

Bond came here a few weeks ago from Cleveland and was not well acquainted with the line. Last night he was in charge of a car on the road near the Thompson pottery, when the rear motor began to flash, and anxious to know that there was no danger he leaned out from the car. At that instant he was passing a pole, and before he knew it Bond's head had come in contact with it, and he was knocked from the car. The passengers saw the accident, and there was excitement, for the car was dashing along without any one at the lever. It happened that Motorman Mike Fisher was on board, and he quickly took the lever in hand. He brought the car to a standstill, and the injured motorman was gathered up. He was taken to the office of Doctor Marshall where it was found he had not fully recovered his senses. A long wound on his head showed where he had been struck, and numerous bruises were the other results of the accident. After the wound was dressed, Bond was taken to his boarding house. He is better today.

ON TO WASHINGTON.

The Manufacturers Will Leave Town This Evening.

The manufacturing potters who will go to Washington to attend the meeting of the association will leave this evening, and will spend the greater part of the week at the capital. The gentlemen booked for the trip are J. M. McClave, James H. Goodwin, W. L. Smith, Robert Burford, H. A. Keiffer, O. C. Vodyer, H. M. Harker, B. C. Simms, George Croxall, William Brunt, Noah Frederick and Mr. Mayer. There will be others but they have not yet been listed. Colonel Taylor and Henry Brunt will join them in Pittsburg.

ANOTHER BRIDGE.

It Will be Built Across the River at Bellaire.

The upper Ohio will soon be noted for the number of bridges which span its muddy waters, there now being no less than three in sight, all of them to be finished within two years. The Rochester bridge is well under way, and will be completed by next fall, and the bridge at this point will be ready for travel within a year. The other will be built at Bellaire, a company having been formed for that purpose. It will be a footbridge, be provided with a double track for foot passengers and street cars, and will be one of the best above Cincinnati.

MASHED THE BUGGY.

A Narrow Escape From Going Over the River Bank.

Two young men had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday afternoon. They were driving on Broadway when the horse scared at a reet car, and dashed across the track. It was running toward the bluff overlooking the river when a wheel caught a large lump of coal, overturned the buggy and threw the occupants to the ground. The vehicle was damaged and the young men bruised, but the horse escaped with slight injury. Had the animal continued its course it would have undoubtedly leaped over the bluff.

THE PATROL RECORD.

It Pays to Have the Horry Up Wagon in Town.

The record of the patrol during the first nine months of the fiscal year shows that it pays to have the wagon. In that time there were 86 runs, in which 96 persons were captured. In addition to this number the wagon carried 22 people who had been stricken by illness or had met with accident. A number of runs were made without result, the alarm having been false or the people escaping before it arrived. The arrests were made by different members of the force, every officer having some to his credit.

Surprised.

Miss Gertrude Stoddard was surprised by her friends at her home on May street, Saturday evening. Games and music helped to pass the time until a late hour, when the guests departed all having enjoyed the evening as one of rare pleasure.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, JAN. 13.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF Ohio.

THAT little row in Europe seems to give promise of greater things in the future, whether it be for peace or war.

THE Populist club of Wellsville is on to itself. It wants every man with an idea to attend its next meeting. From this distance it would seem that the club is advertising for brains.

GENERAL ASA BUSHNELL was made governor of Ohio today at noon, and the great victory of the Republican party is now complete. May the new governor never forget that he is the servant of the people and as such should use his every power to give them a clean administration, free from scandal, political or social. He is a worthy gentleman taking the place of an illustrious statesman, and should ever remember the responsibilities of his position.

MR. CAMPBELL'S POSITION.

The story that James E. Campbell, late Democratic candidate for governor, has been called upon by the grand jury of Franklin county to substantiate the charges he made against public officials during the last campaign, will be heard with delight in Ohio. It may have a good effect. Mr. Campbell pretended that he had a burning desire to be governor, and he preached his own cause through the state with all the power of his questionable oratory. He praised Mr. Brice and all the other candidates of his party, and in the hope of gaining a few votes threw vast quantities of political mud upon men whose honor and integrity had never been questioned. It was, apparently, not individuals but Republican officials he was after, and acting upon the supposition that all his political opponents were rogues, he abused them shamefully. The charges were sweeping in their nature, and if true would have landed many men in the penitentiary. It is meet and right that Mr. Campbell be called to testify. If he told the truth in the campaign it is his duty as a citizen to give that evidence where it can be used to remove those men from their high estate. If he simply used the stuff he seemed to think good political argument, we want to know it in order that he may take his rightful place in the state. Ohio wants no men who will not do their duty well as officials, any more than it wants demagogues howling lies from the political stump.

Routine Matters in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The week in the house will be devoted to routine matters. As soon as the consideration of the rules is completed the pension appropriation bill will be taken up. As quite a number of members desire to be heard on various matters connected with the administration of the pension office and various proposed reforms therein, it has been decided to allow ample time for debate, and it is not believed that the bill will be disposed of before Thursday. The appropriations committee has no other bill ready and the remainder of the week will be devoted to such other matters as may be brought up.

Arbitration Resolution Introduced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Representative Towne of Minnesota has presented a resolution directing the foreign affairs committee to report upon the advantage and practicability of the establishment of a permanent court of international arbitration, representing the United States and the British empire.

Prince Henry III. of Fever.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—The war office has received a dispatch from the British authorities in West Africa saying that Prince Henry of Battenburg, who accompanied the expedition against the Ashantes and who had to return to Cape Coast Castle on account of an attack of swamp fever, is worse.

JOSEPH BROS.

BUSHNELL'S ADDRESS.

Full Text of the Inaugural Speech Today.

OHIO IS RICH IN PROSPERITY

Yet the Financial Statement of 1895 Shows the Need of More Revenue—Public Education Should be Ever Before Our Eyes—A Brilliant Oration.

Special to the News Review.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 13.—The inaugural speech of Governor-elect Bushnell is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives: In assuming the duties of governor at a period when we are approaching the end of a century, fraught with great achievements of civilization, it seems not improper that we should consider for a moment the progress made by our own commonwealth since its foundation. In the past we have accomplished all our people can take deep and lasting pride. One hundred and eighty years ago a half ago a handful of pioneers, led by the territorial foundation stones, and upon that beginning other men and women of the same sturdy stock reared a modest structure, which, on Feb. 19, 1803, was deemed worthy of statehood, and became Ohio. No act of the congress of the United States has ever had a more glorious foundation than that which brought Ohio into being. It gave the Union an ever loyal state; it provided a model for those who followed; it started a commonwealth upon an era of development not second to any other in the world.

The history of our state needs no enlargement here. The lesson taught by the events of the past has been plain to all, and in the present it speaks in more glowing language than pen of historian could write or utterance of patriotic describe. We are now 4,000,000 people, while at the opening of the century our forefathers were of but an hundred part of that number. Ohio has literally increased one hundred fold. In 39 years, from the time when our territory rose above the territorial form of government became active, there has been a result an hundred fold greater in almost every way. The harvest has been an abundant one, and the people of Ohio, the past as well as those of the present, it can be said that we have had and have good reason for claiming the approval of the steward who strikes the balance to show who the children of earth have reaped wisdom and well.

While mindful of the divine guidance, of the manifold blessings and of the providential care which have aided and attended the history of Ohio through their years, it is yet permissible to think that no small part of the magnificent result of today is due to the good citizenship which ever has been manifested by those who have contributed to Ohio's greatness. We have been of a happy and contented people—a class that improved upon prosperity and saw good in everything. We have enjoyed good government, we have thriven under laws beneficial for the most part, and we have had before us always the necessity for preserving inviolate the honor and dignity of our state. How much success there has been in the way of progress, and holding the credit of Ohio in all ways has been for others to say, and we know that the pages of American history contain nothing to shame us. We are today enjoying the benefits of the work of the workers of the past and to some extent that which our own industry, prudence and patriotism have wrought.

No state is richer in the elements of prosperity than Ohio. The bounty of nature gave us a fertile soil, in mineral wealth, in the grazing lands, in lakes and rivers, in a healthful climate and in a thousand other respects, was of infinite value. The habits of industry, of indomitable ambition and good endeavor, which came as a common heritage from our predecessors, go a long way toward fitting us to carry on the design of making Ohio ever one of the foremost of the American states. We have been and are profiting by the example of those who have gone before us, and it must be our aim to improve upon the record, to expand our possibilities and to achieve success which will enable us in the future to regard our part in the citizenship of Ohio with as much satisfaction as we now do that of the pioneer patriots who served Ohio so well in all walks of life.

The duty of legislating and acting for the 4,000,000 people of a progressive state is not one to be considered without seriousness and deep concern. It involves the necessity of doing that which will for the greatest number, the requirement that the credit of the state shall be maintained in moral as well as financial affairs, and the essentials that peace and well-being, in so far as they may be attainable through the acts of legislation and execution of laws and government, shall be assured to all. It is for us during our public service to do our utmost to sustain the good of the past and to try to eradicate the evils that exist in the present or threaten the future. To this sustain, strengthen and serve the people of Ohio, it is necessary that every officer of the state shall bend his energies to the task of perfecting the conditions which are so closely allied with the welfare of the commonwealth.

The state of Ohio, as it is represented by its government, is out a vast business concern. It has its many departments, its various divisions, which are peopled by its clerks, and its laborers of high and low degree of duty. The legislative branch of the government, like the advisory board of the business institution, can do much for good or much for evil. By considering carefully the intricacies of the financial affairs, by acting wisely for the people in enacting laws, by applying economy to public expenditures whenever and wherever expedient, by judiciously and justly providing for adequate revenue by taxation, the good result becomes apparent.

All considered financial legislation, expenditure and judicious taxation can only result in aggravated evils under which any house may suffer and, perhaps, fall. There will be opportunity during the session of the seventy-second general assembly to demonstrate the wisdom of the proposition first advanced. Through the natural increase in the population of the state institutions and the consequent increase of expenses, we are confronted with a condition which calls for economy, and less expense in administering the affairs of the state, and it is for the general assembly to determine which it shall be.

The financial statement of the fiscal year of 1895 showed that the ordinary receipts amounted to $3,745,721.22, and the balance in the general revenue fund at the close of the year amounted to $235,673.38. The balance in the treasury at the close of the fiscal year 1894 was $354,727.85. An investigation of the general financial statements from 1884 to 1895, inclusive, shows that during the 12 years a total of $1,295,180.86 have been disbursed, while the receipts were $3,151,937.84, thus showing a deficiency in receipts during the 12 years of $2,663,343.02. In only one year of the 12 were the receipts greater than the disbursements, and that in 1890 when the balance was very nearly $50,000 on the credit side, that result being due to the $32,000 of direct tax refunded by the federal government being applied to the general revenue fund. This general statement of the financial result during the last 12 years will show that the state of Ohio, rich and resourceful as it is, has need of additional revenue.

The auditor of state has estimated the available resources for the fiscal year of 1896 at $3,649,511.06, which amount includes the balance in the treasury at the close of the year 1895. The estimated disbursements according to the state auditor's report are $4,963,697.63. That amount includes $3,482,693.87, the aggregate asked for by the various state institutions, and $1,480,993.76, the aggregate asked for by the various state institutions. Military, Civil and Political Organizations From All Over the State Take Their Places in the Line of March—The Governor-Elect Delivers His Inaugural in the Presence of Thousands of Visitors. A Full Text of the Speech, in Which the New Executive Gives His Opinions on State Issues and Makes Recommendations to the State Legislature—A Pleasant Compliment and Good Wishes to the Retiring Governor—The Line of March and Full Description of the Inaugural Ceremonies Today.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 13.—Asa S. Bushnell was inaugurated as governor of the great state of Ohio at noon today. Yesterday, last night and this morning the railroads poured into the city thousands of visitors, military and civil organizations and political clubs, all to witness the inauguration ceremonies, and some to participate in the inaugural parade.

The judges of the supreme court, the state officers and state officers-elect (except the governor and governor-elect), the clergy and members of the press, the mayor and members of the city council of Columbus, met with the general assembly in the senate chamber at 11:30 o'clock, and from there proceeded to the place of inauguration and the rounds of the state house in the following order:

Judges of the supreme court, state officers and state officers-elect, the clergy, the president and pro tem. of the senate, the speaker and pro tem. of the house of representatives, the general assembly, the mayor and the city council, the members of the press.

The joint committee met Governor McKinley and Governor-elect Bushnell at 11:40 a. m., and accompanied them to the place of inauguration.

The ceremonies opened with prayer by the Rev. William J. Russell. The oath of office was then administered to Hon. Asa S. Bushnell, governor-elect, by the chief justice of the supreme court.

Then followed the inaugural address by Governor Bushnell. At the close of the ceremonies the governor and those accompanying him re-entered carriages and proceeded to the place assigned them in the parade, and after passing over the line of marching, they took their place on the reviewing stand, from which the parade was reviewed by the governor.

The parade was in charge of Colonel George D. Freeman, and moved in the following order:

After the parade the State officers-elect proceeded to their respective offices, where the oath of office was administered to them by the judges of the supreme court. The senators separated to the senate chamber, where the oath of office was administered to the lieutenant governor-elect, and the members of the house of representatives proceeded to the hall of the house of representatives.

The reception to Governor Bushnell and Lieutenant Governor Jones will be held in the senate chamber this evening.

The public is invited, and an immense crowd is expected. To prevent unseemly crowding, the approaches to the state house will be guarded, and the doors will remain closed until the gubernatorial party is in the senate chamber.

Tickets have been issued to the judges of the supreme court, state officers, members of the general assembly and holders of these tickets will be admitted to the north door of the state house an hour earlier than the general public. At 8:30 o'clock the doors will be thrown open to the general public.

The weather.
Fair and colder; winds becoming northwesterly.

BRITAIN'S GREEDY EYE

Now Turned on a Big Slice of Alaska.

DAVIS SEES INTO HER SCHEME.

Wants to Build a City, Develop the Country and Establish a Mammoth Naval Station and Military Post—Opposed to Arbitrating the Dispute.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Senator Davis, of the committee on foreign relations, has been giving considerable attention to the Alaskan boundary dispute. He has found nothing in his investigations which would cause him to change the lines which have always been understood as the boundary, and upon which both countries have been proceeding for many years. He says that the only question in dispute is whether the ten marine leagues from the ocean meant from the main land or from the adjacent islands.

Mr. Davis says that this does not even present a case for arbitration because it is manifestly plain that the shore of the main land of the continent is the basis of the true line. It is also evident from the selection of the mountain range as a line, that the men who drew the boundary agreement meant that the line should be ten leagues from the ocean where it touched the main land. Islands, he says, always go with the shore, and when a question arises as to whether an island, no matter at what time settled or claimed, belongs to one country or another, it goes always to the country owning the main land if the main land is adjacent. So it is with the islands of the Alaskan archipelago. They became the property of Russia, because Russia owned the main land of the shore and became the property of the United States when Alaska was sold to this country.

The desire of Great Britain for a portion of the Alaskan coast is plainly apparent, says Senator Davis, when it is considered that there is a vast country in the northwest territory which can reach the seaboard only through a pass in the north Rocky Mountains and thence across the strip of land owned by the United States. East of the Rocky Mountains and east of the Alaskan coast is a country of almost inestimable extent known as the Peace river country. There may be one hundred million acres of tillable or pastoral ground there. It has the benefit of the warm air currents from the Pacific, which make it a milder climate than in those portions of the northwest territory still farther east. It is desired by Great Britain to open up this great wheat and stock producing country and secure a short route to the sea. A branch of the Canadian Pacific road could be built through this Peace river region and by a pass through the mountains reach the seaboard without much trouble and by a much shorter haul than by railroads further south.

This would give the Canadian Pacific another western terminus, would build up a British city right upon the flank of the Alaskan possession of the United States and there would be another great naval station and a military post commanding our Alaskan territory and the protection which the Alaskan coast now gives to this country would be largely nullified. The object of Great Britain is quite plain. Upon the great fertile lands to be opened by building a road to the coast through the Peace river region there would be vast fields of cereals competing with the grain raised in our states along our northern border. At present these fields cannot be opened nor the lands developed because of the long rail haul to the terminus of the Canadian Pacific road. Without another terminus in Alaska these great fields cannot be opened without the consent of the United States. Senator Davis does not think the government will ever seriously consider the question of arbitrating the Alaskan boundary.

MUCH TALK ON SILVER

A Flood of Oration Expected This Week on the Bond Bill Substitute.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The greater part of the time of the senate during the present week will be consumed in the discussion of the finance committee's silver substitute for the bond bill. Senator Morgan will lead off with a speech, and Senators Daniel and Dubois have also given notice of speeches. Various other senators are known to be prepared to take the floor either in advocacy of or in opposition to the substitute. The probabilities are all against securing a vote on the measure during the week. The bill is one which under any circumstances would call for the many set speeches and much animated debate, which would render it impossible to reach a conclusion after only one week's debate.

The advocates of the bill also have a special reason in this instance for desiring a temporary delay. Appreciating the close margin on the vote, they are desirous that the Utah senators, of whose support they feel confident, should be in their seats when the vote is taken. They would probably not resort to dilatory tactics to secure this delay further than to make sure that there are speeches enough to consume the time in what may be designated as legitimate debate.

The fourth floor of the Baltimore Sun building was selected for offices. The commission will meet daily at No. 1412 Massachusetts avenue, N. W., the residence of Justice Brewer, until such of fices are fitted up.

Dr. Gilman presented to the commission a sketch of a preliminary physical map of the disputed territory. The commission adjourned without having selected a secretary or other officers, but carefully examined the claims of the several applicants.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Mountford pottery started with a full force this morning.

Mark Huston, of Broadway, is recovering after an illness.

The Rechabites will initiate a few candidates tonight and arrange for a banquet to be held later in the month.

A wheelman who tempted fate had a hard fall on Fifth street this morning, the bicycle slipping out from under him.

The brother of John Winegartner says that he did not fall and break his arm, as was reported in a local paper last week.

The bar that was sawed in two by Witherup, the youthful forger, who was confined at city hall, was made whole today.

George McDole went west this morning in the interest of the East Liverpool pottery. There are now but few salesmen in town.

Business men sold more goods on Saturday night than was expected. Trade was good and clerks were kept busy until a late hour.

Officer Meador is on duty again, after an attack of the grip, lasting several weeks. He is having his share of ill luck at present, for his wife and children are now ill.

A kiln was placed at the china works today, and the kiln hands there will have a little work during the week, but it is not known when the plant will start in full.

The Gilbert Opera company, who played very well at the Grand on Saturday night, drove over the hills to Lisbon this morning, where they have an engagement this evening.

Adam Guppert, an employee of the Union, will be married in Pittsburgh tomorrow night to Miss Kittie Pifer. The young couple will return here on Wednesday, and will reside on Thompson hill.

Officer Whan sent a valuable English setter dog to a friend in Beaver Falls Saturday last. He had one stolen about two weeks ago, and since has learned that the animal is in Steubenville.

The river is falling and there is little navigation. Some boats are taking up empty tows, but the packets have not yet resumed business. There is a little ice, but not enough to be considered dangerous.

George Hale won the race at the rink on Saturday night against James Delaney. Hale rode a wheel and Delaney was on skates. The wheelman had the advantage at the corners and made very good time.

At the First Presbyterian church last evening Doctor Lee preached to the children an excellent sermon and illustrated it with chemicals. Prizes for regular attendance at church were distributed, there being 81 in all.

The Rovers are arranging for a game with the Cleveland team, and will probably play there on Washington's birthday. All the boys feel good over the victory at Niles, and now realize that they have one of the best association teams in this part of the world.

Steubenville has been struck by a wave of morality, and prominent residents want it purged of its wickedness. The rottenness developed by some of the recent murder trials has opened their eyes, and they now see that it is one of the wickedest towns on the river.

The gospel meetings, which began yesterday in the Church of Christ, were largely attended and great interest was manifested. All were charmed with the singing of Evangelist Hubbell. Rev. J. G. Slater will preach every night this week. Song service at 7:30 and preaching at 8.

While returning from church last evening Mrs. Tony Bertele was seized by a sudden illness in the Diamond, and was carried to a neighboring drug store, where she became somewhat better. Later she was taken home, and during the night became much worse. The lady is today in a precarious condition, but hopes are entertained that the attack will not prove fatal.

The Italians are hard at work over the river, and have uncovered a large deposit of stone on the Cunningham farm. Some has already been taken out, and the engineer finds it to be of very good quality, just what is needed for the heavy piers of the bridge. The force has been sensibly increased the last few days, and a large number of men are now employed. The contractor is hoping for good weather in order that work on the piers can be commenced at once.

In speaking of business this morning a justice of the peace said that business just now was very dull, and the squires were not getting rich. Last week he made just 40 cents from the office, and he has a sufficient number of accounts on his books to take all the roses from his bed of office, and leave nothing but an array of painfully sharp thorns. Business has not been good for the squires for several months, the number of civil cases having fallen woefully short since the potteries began making full time.

GEO. C. MURPHY

The Clothier, Hatter and Furnisher, Will Save You Money.

We feel kind of lonesome since Christmas. We had gotten used to the scramble and hustle of the holiday times, and the after-quiet makes us feel as if we had been dumped in the middle of a prairie. Rent and a hundred other expenses go on just as before, and as we can't make money anyway, we might as well lose it with a crowd as in solitude. So here goes prices to make things hum at our store in the Diamond. Come in and look through our superb stock of Overcoats, pick out one to suit you, and deduct one-fourth off the price. For example, if a coat is marked $16 take it along at $12; or if marked at $8 take it along at $6. In our suit and pants department we will make you reductions that will open your eyes. Come at once as our stock must be reduced.

AFTER NEW GAME LAWS

Local Sportsmen Want a Few Changes.

AS TO PHEASANTS AND RABBITS

The Season Cut Short Several Months For the First and a Restriction Placed Upon the Killing of the Other—A Bill Has Been Sent to Columbus.

Local sportsmen who scour the field and woods in wind and weather in search of game, and shoot because they like sport better than pecuniary gain, have prepared and sent to Columbus a few important amendments to the game law.

The bill was prepared by an ex-member of the legislature and contains a few features that interest every man who carries a gun. With it goes a petition signed by many of the best men in the county, and it is believed one of the representatives from this county will introduce the measure. The bill provides for the killing of pheasants from Nov. 10, until the end of the year, but at no other time. At present the law allows the birds to be shot between Sept. 1 and Dec. 15, but the backers of the movement think the time is too long, and calculated to kill off all the pheasants in Ohio if observed for any great length of time. The other important section deals with rabbits. Now they can be killed any day in the year, provided they are found, but the sportsmen do not think that part of the existing law the right thing. They have noted that rabbits are growing less in number every year, and to preserve them so they will make sport and not profit, the hunters, want their season made the same as pheasants. This, they claim, will be ample time, and will allow the rabbits to grow in number. No change is made in the law governing quail, yet there are some people, and their number is not a few, who believe the birds should not be killed during the next five years. Indications point to the adoption of the law, as many representatives have already promised it their support.

INSURE IN THE BEST, And the Best is the New York Life Insurance Company.

Does the largest business of any company in the world. One hundred and twenty-seven million new insurance paid for in 1895.

Is one of the largest life insurance companies. Assets $194,491,990.90.

Is one of the strongest life insurance companies. Surplus $24,038,677.89.

Is the most economically managed company. Expenses of management and losses to new business only 2.85 per cent.

Issues the only policy that contains no restrictions. One month grace in payment of premiums. During its month of grace the policy remains in full force.

Loans on the policy at five per cent. This the policy holders liquidated during the financial stringency of 1893 and borrowed $3,150,499.06 at once and at a time when the banks would not lend money on government bonds and would not pay checks in cash. This is a policy worth having. It is payable on sight no waiting 60 or 90 days. The nonforfeiture feature includes extended insurance for the face of the policy, also paid up insurance. The policy states the exact amount of paid up insurance also the exact amount of extended insurance. The policies are issued on the 15 and 20 payment plan. At the lowest rates when you have a policy of this kind you are insured. No matter how you die your policy is paid at once, and if you live you get the money yourself together with a good rate of interest, and your insurance has cost you nothing.

If you will send your name and address and date of birth to S. J. Crawford, general agent, 304 Fourth street, East Liverpool, O., you will receive an illustration of this policy.

Wants to be Marshal.

The last candidate to announce himself for the position of marshal is Officer Harry Meador. He served one term as patrolman and has been a roundsman for a year, the whole time being spent in doing his duty and making a good record. Officer Meador is well known in the city, and as his announcement has been expected for some time, his appearance in the field does not complicate matters.

Squire George Morley is a candidate for mayor, having formally announced himself today. Mr. Morley has so long been a resident of the city that he needs no introduction. For one term he served as mayor, and he filled the position well. His knowledge of law and his business judgment makes him a most acceptable candidate.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. J. Boyce is in Salineville on business today.

E. M. Crosser went to Salineville on business this morning.

J. E. Thompson and son were passengers on the morning train east.

Mrs. Whipple, of Frankfort, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. Clay Gould, Broadway.

Miss Clara Moore, of Lisbon, is the guest of Mrs. Harry Kelfer, of Thompson hill.

Miss Nettie Slayton has returned to her home in Mingo after a visit with friends in this city.

Mr. Ferguson, formerly of this place, but now of Youngstown, returned to that place this morning after a few days visit with friends here.

IN WHEELING.

Alabama Was Enthusiastically Received.

"Alabama" played in Wheeling on Saturday night, and the papers of that city speak so well of the company that it cannot but be observed as one of the best Wheeling has seen this season. The engagement of the company at the Grand tonight is one of the dramatic events of the year, and the opera house should be crowded. It is not often that the city is afforded anything as good.

The impression was abroad this morning that "Alabama" is a colored company, but it is not. The play is much after the style of "Shore Acres," and the company is of the same rank.

THEY TALKED.

H. L. Simms Talked With the Phoenix Officials.

H. L. Simms had a talk with the Phoenix company officials in Steubenville, but has nothing for publication just yet. The company do not like the number of free telephones asked by the city, but it is not known that they will drop out on that account. They will have over 300 phones in operation down the river, and have gone into territory which the Bell does not reach. The Steubenville capitalists are elated at the prospect of a good thing at the rates they have established.

Among the Sick.

Robert Logan, of Sixth street, is improving and strong hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

Koss Vogel, of Sheridan avenue, is ill with an attack of typhoid fever.

Miss Mary Collins, of Fourth street, is ill.

Mrs. Mary Laughlin, the aged mother of Doctor Laughlin, is ill at her home on Fifth street, and there is small hopes for her recovery. The lady has pneumonia and is very low.

Alabama.

"Alabama" comes to the Grand tonight, and should be greeted by a large audience. It is a fine play with an excellent cast, and is one of the very best performers that will be seen here this season. The company have played in all the large cities of the country, and have been very successful.

Selling Property.

Sheriff Gill is in town today serving subpoenas and tomorrow he will sell the W. H. Thompson property on the claim of Charles Eichel. The sheriff looks very well and says that his new office agrees with him.

Bringing It Up.

The work of bringing the West End culvert over Carpenter's run to the level of the road is being completed. The work was commenced some months ago, but owing to the inclement weather it was abandoned.

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy, I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Preparing to Play.

The Shamrocks will have a good ball club in the field next season, and are preparing for a long list of games. At present the boys are arranging for natty new uniforms, which will be here before the season opens.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Monterey, Clarion company, Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Harvey Badgley.

Is reported as strictly in the race for the position of city marshal. He is making an earnest canvass and has a following which he claims cannot be taken away from him and which will count at the polls.

THE POLICE GOT THEM

Two Liverpool People Went to Wellsville.

REGISTERED AS MAN AND WIFE

Proprietor McGinnis Suspected Something Wrong Yesterday, and Ordered Them Out of the House—Arrested and Gave Fictitious Names—in Police Court.

A young man of this city went to Wellsville on Saturday night, and succeeded in getting himself into police court before he got home.

In company with a married woman whose home is on Third street he went to the Commercial House, and registered as Mr. Smith and wife. The pair did nothing to excite suspicion, but yesterday their actions became such that Proprietor McGinnis imagined something was wrong. He ordered the pair to pack up and get out as soon as possible, but the young man showed no disposition to leave. He became obstreperous when the hotel man enforced his demand, and the police were called. Seeing his error the young man left the place with the woman, but a short distance from the hotel they were arrested. Information which the authorities possessed convinced them that the pair were from this city, and Mayor Sinclair gave them a hearing. The man gave his name as Smith, and the woman refused to say anything. After repeated questioning without success the mayor exercised his authority under the law, and gave her a name. He also fined them $9 each, and allowed them to go. The father of the young man was very indignant when he heard the story, and the action of the woman will likely cause a separation from the husband.

TWO NEGROES ARRESTED.

Each Suspected of the Brutal Assault at Parkersburg, W. Va.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 13.—Wade Grant and Lewis Washington, two negroes, have been arrested, both suspected of the assault on the Wethereld child.

Lulu Wethereld, the victim, is 12 years old, and the daughter of Thomas J. Wethereld, cashier of the Parkersburg national bank. She was in the library playing on the piano when the crime was committed. Lulu String, a companion of the same age, was with her. Upstairs were Lulu's brother Joe and her aged grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. Wethereld were absent.

A young man came into the room with a red shawl over his head and face. The children paid no attention, because they thought it was Joe Wethereld come to scare them. He put out the light and threw the shawl over Lulu, threatening to kill her if she made a noise. Both girls screamed. The villain dealt Lulu Wethereld a stunning blow over the head, then dragged her out into the dark alley nearly two blocks from the house. She still struggled. The scoundrel struck her twice and escaped, leaving her unconscious in the alley, where she was found. There is no evidence of other outrage than the beating. The child's life is despaired of.

TO HELP OUR COMMISSION.

President Crespo Appoints Men to Secure Evidence For Venezuela.

LA GUAYRA, Venezuela, Jan. 13.—President Crespo has appointed Rafael Seijas, Laureano Villanueva, Julian Vico March and Antonio Saluzzo a commission to search the libraries in Venezuela for old data regarding the Guiana boundary, in order to assist the United States commission.

An anti-English meeting in Merida urged the government to immediately close Venezuela's ports to British ships.

The legislature of the states of Miranda and Zulia have approved President Crespo's decree making rebellion now treason and have petitioned congress to enact a law making it so.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Married.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Alva S. Vanderbilt, divorced wife of W. K. Vanderbilt, and Oliver H. P. Belmont were married by Mayor Strong at Mrs. Vanderbilt's home, Seventy-second street and Madison avenue, Saturday morning.

Permitted to Delve Under Corinth.

ATHENS, Jan. 13.—The Grecian government has issued permits allowing the American School of Archaeology to conduct excavations at Corinth for historical and scientific purposes. Work will commence as soon as the weather permits.

Named to Succeed Blackburn.

FRANKFORT, Jan. 13.—The republican caucus to nominate a candidate for United States Senator nominated Dr. Hunter by acclamation. Representative Wilson has died, giving the Republicans one majority on a joint ballot.

The Columbus Bank Failure.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 13.—The suspension of the Fifth Avenue Savings bank was caused by a run resulting from a rumor that the bank held a large amount of the paper of A. C. Ady, the assigned builder. The capital stock is $50,000.

Italians Repulse Attacks.

ROME, Jan. 13.—General Baratieri, in command of the Italian forces in Abyssinia, telegraphs to the government that the Italians have repulsed several fresh attacks by the Shoans on Makaleh, the losses being slight.

Corbett Ready to Challenge.

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 13.—A letter has been received here from Corbett, announcing that he will be at the ring-side when Fitzsimmons and Maher fight to challenge the Australian in case he wins.

Save You Money.

We feel kind of lonesome since Christmas. We had gotten used to the scramble and hustle of the holiday times, and the after-quiet makes us feel as if we had been dumped in the middle of a prairie. Rent and a hundred other expenses go on just as before, and as we can't make money anyway, we might as well lose it with a crowd as in solitude. So here goes prices to make things hum at our store in the Diamond. Come in and look through our superb stock of Overcoats, pick out one to suit you, and deduct one-fourth off the price. For example, if a coat is marked $16 take it along at $12; or if marked at $8 take it along at $6. In our suit and pants department we will make you reductions that will open your eyes. Come at once as our stock must be reduced.

Harrison Has a Quiet Sunday.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Ex-President Benjamin Harrison passed Sunday very quietly at the Fifth Avenue. He had no visitors. During the forenoon General Harrison called upon his married daughter, Mrs. McKee. Nothing is known of his reported marriage to Mrs. Dimmick.

The Dispute Already Settled.

AFTER NEW GAME LAWS

Local Sportsmen Want a Few Changes.

AS TO PHEASANTS AND RABBITS

The Season Cut Short Several Months For the First and a Restriction Placed Upon the Killing of the Other—A Bill Has Been Sent to Columbus.

Local sportsmen who scour the field and woods in wind and weather in search of game, and shoot because they like sport better than pecuniary gain, have prepared and sent to Columbus a few important amendments to the game law.

The bill was prepared by an ex-member of the legislature and contains a few features that interest every man who carries a gun. With it goes a petition signed by many of the best men in the county, and it is believed one of the representatives from this county will introduce the measure. The bill provides for the killing of pheasants from Nov. 10, until the end of the year, but at no other time. At present the law allows the birds to be shot between Sept. 1 and Dec. 15, but the backers of the movement think the time is too long, and calculated to kill off all the pheasants in Ohio if observed for any great length of time. The other important section deals with rabbits. Now they can be killed any day in the year, provided they are found, but the sportsmen do not think that part of the existing law the right thing. They have noted that rabbits are growing less in number every year, and to preserve them so they will make sport and not profit, the hunters, want their season made the same as pheasants. This, they claim, will be ample time, and will allow the rabbits to grow in number. No change is made in the law governing quail, yet there are some people, and their number is not a few, who believe the birds should not be killed during the next five years. Indications point to the adoption of the law, as many representatives have already promised it their support.

INSURE IN THE BEST,

And the Best is the New York Life Insurance Company.

Does the largest business of any company in the world. One hundred and twenty-seven million new insurance paid for in 1905.

Is one of the largest life insurance companies. Assets $194,491,990.90.

Is one of the strongest life insurance companies. Surplus $24,638,677.89.

Is the most economically managed company. Expenses of management and losses to new business only 2.85 per cent.

Issues the only policy that contains no restrictions. One month grace in payment of premiums. During its month of grace the policy remains in full force.

Loans on the policy at five per cent. This the policy holders liquidated during the financial stringency of 1893 and borrowed $3,150,499.06 at once and at a time when the banks would not lend money on government bonds and would not pay checks in cash. This is a policy worth having. It is payable on sight no waiting 60 or 90 days. The nonforfeiture feature includes extended insurance for the face of the policy, also paid up insurance. The policy states the exact amount of paid up insurance also the exact amount of extended insurance. The policies are issued on the 15 and 20 payment plan. At the lowest rates when you have a policy of this kind you are insured. No matter how you die your policy is paid at once, and if you live you get the money yourself together with a good rate of interest, and your insurance has cost you nothing.

If you will send your name and address and date of birth to S. J. Crawford, general agent, 304 Fourth street, East Liverpool, O., you will receive an illustration of this policy.

Wants to be Marshal.

The last candidate to announce himself for the position of marshal is Officer Harry Meador. He served one term as patrolman and has been a roundsman for a year, the whole time being spent in doing his duty and making a good record. Officer Meador is well known in the city, and as his announcement has been expected for some time, his appearance in the field does not complicate matters.

Squire George Morley is a candidate for mayor, having formally announced himself today. Mr. Morley has so long been a resident of the city that he needs no introduction. For one term he served as mayor, and he filled the position well. His knowledge of law and his business judgment makes him a most acceptable candidate.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. J. Boyce is in Salineville on business today.

E. M. Crosser went to Salineville on business this morning.

J. E. Thompson and son were passengers on the morning train east. —Mrs. Whipple, of Frankfort, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. Clay Gould, Broadway.

—Miss Clara Moore, of Lisbon, is the guest of Mrs. Harry Keiffer, of Thompson hill.

—Miss Nettie Slayton has returned to her home in Mingo after a visit with friends in this city.

—Mr. Ferguson, formerly of this place, but now of Youngstown, returned to that place this morning after a few days visit with friends here.

IN WHEELING.

Alabama Was Enthusiastically Received.

"Alabama" played in Wheeling on Saturday night, and the papers of that city speak so well of the company that it cannot but be observed as one of the best Wheeling has seen this season. The engagement of the company at the Grand tonight is one of the dramatic events of the year, and the opera house should be crowded. It is not often that the city is afforded anything as good.

The impression was abroad this morning that "Alabama" is a colored company, but it is not. The play is much after the style of "Shore Acres," and the company is of the same rank.

THEY TALKED.

H. L. Simms Talked With the Phoenix Officials.

H. L. Simms had a talk with the Phoenix company officials in Steubenville, but has nothing for publication just yet. The company do not like the number of free telephones asked by the city, but it is not known that they will drop out on that account. They will have over 300 phones in operation down the river, and have gone into territory which the Bell does not reach. The Steubenville capitalists are elated at the prospect of a good thing at the rates they have established.

Among the Sick.

Robert Logan, of Sixth street, is improving and strong hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

Ross Vogel, of Sheridan avenue, is ill with an attack of typhoid fever.

Miss Mary Collins, of Fourth street, is ill.

Mrs. Mary Laughlin, the aged mother of Doctor Laughlin, is ill at her home on Fifth street, and there is small hopes for her recovery. The lady has pneumonia and is very low.

Alabama.

"Alabama" comes to the Grand tonight, and should be greeted by a large audience. It is a fine play with an excellent cast, and is one of the very best performers that will be seen here this season. The company have played in all the large cities of the country, and have been very successful.

Selling Property.

Sheriff Gill is in town today serving subpoenas and tomorrow he will sell the W. H. Thompson property on the claim of Charles Eichel. The sheriff looks very well and says that his new office agrees with him.

Bringing It Up.

The work of bringing the West End culvert over Carpenter's run to the level of the road is being completed. The work was commenced some months ago, but owing to the inclement weather it was abandoned.

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy. I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Preparing to Play.

The Shamrocks will have a good ball club in the field next season, and are preparing for a long list of games. At present the boys are arranging for natty new uniforms, which will be here before the season opens.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Monterey, Clarion company, Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Harvey Badgeley.

Is reported as strictly in the race for the position of city marshal. He is making an earnest canvass and has a following which he claims cannot be taken away from him and which will count at the polls.

THE POLICE GOT THEM

Two Liverpool People Went to Wellsville.

REGISTERED AS MAN AND WIFE

Proprietor McGinnis Suspected Something Wrong Yesterday, and Ordered Them Out of the House—Arrested and Gave Fictitious Names—In Police Court.

A young man of this city went to Wellsville on Saturday night, and succeeded in getting himself into police court before he got home.

In company with a married woman whose home is on Third street he went to the Commercial House, and registered as Mr. Smith and wife. The pair did nothing to excite suspicion, but yesterday their actions became such that Proprietor McGinnis imagined something was wrong. He ordered the pair to pack up and get out as soon as possible, but the young man showed no disposition to leave. He became obstreperous when the hotel man enforced his demand, and the police were called. Seeing his error the young man left the place with the woman, but a short distance from the hotel they were arrested. Information which the authorities possessed convinced them that the pair were from this city, and Mayor Sinclair gave them a hearing. The man gave his name as Smith, and the woman refused to say anything. After repeated questioning without success the mayor exercised his authority under the law, and gave her a name. He also fined them $9 each, and allowed them to go. The father of the young man was very indignant when he heard the story, and the action of the woman will likely cause a separation from the husband.

TWO NEGROES ARRESTED.

Each Suspected of the Brutal Assault at Parkersburg, W. Va.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 13.—Wade Grant and Lewis Washington, two negroes, have been arrested, both suspected of the assault on the Wetherfield child.

Lulu Wetherfield, the victim, is 12 years old, and the daughter of Thomas J. Wetherfield, cashier of the Parkersburg national bank. She was in the library playing on the piano when the crime was committed. Lulu String, a companion of the same age was with her. Upstairs were Lulu's brother Joe and her aged grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. Wetherfield were absent.

A young man came into the room with a red shawl over his head and face. The children paid no attention, because they thought it was Joe Wetherfield come to scare them. He put out the light and threw the shawl over Lulu, threatening to kill her if she made a noise. Both girls screamed. The villain dealt Lulu Wetherfield a stunning blow over the head, then dragged her out into the dark alley nearly two blocks from the house. She still struggled. The scoundrel struck her twice and escaped, leaving her unconscious in the alley, where she was found. There is no evidence of other outrage than the beating. The child's life is despaired of.

TO HELP OUR COMMISSION.

President Crespo Appoints Men to Secure Evidence For Venezuela.

LA GUAYRA, Venezuela, Jan. 13.—President Crespo has appointed Rafael Seijas, Laureano Villanueva, Julian Viso March and Antonio Saluzzo a commission to search the libraries in Venezuela for old data regarding the Guiana boundary, in order to assist the United States commission.

An anti-English meeting in Merida urged the government to immediately close Venezuela's ports to British ships.

The legislature of the states of Miranda and Zulia have approved President Crespo's decree making rebellion now treason and have petitioned congress to enact a law making it so.
